

Module structure and study schedule – MAEnglish-Speaking Cultures: Language, Text, Media

This table outlines the module structure and recommended study schedule; modules can be completed in a different order.

		compulsory modules incl. module MA Thesis (54 CP)			compulsory elective modules * (66 CP)				∑ 120 CP
1st Year	1st semester	OrMo Orientation Module (15 CP)	UEP Part 1 Using English in the Professional World (6 CP) 				SuStMo Supplementary Studies Module (9 CP) 		30 CP
	2nd semester		UEP Part 2 Using English in the Professional World (3 CP) 		ExMo1 Extension Module 1 (9 CP)	ExMo2 Extension Module 2 (9 CP)		AWE1 Academic Work Experience 1 (9 CP)	30 CP
2nd Year	3rd semester				ReMo Research Module (9 CP)	SpecMo Specialisation Module (12 CP)		AWE2 Academic Work Experience 2 (9 CP)	30 CP
	4th semester			MaThe Master Thesis (30 CP)					30 CP

CP = Credit Points

* Students can choose (and combine) seminars from three profile areas: 1) British, North American and Postcolonial Literatures; 2) Linguistics: Varieties, Medialities, Applications; 3) British, North American and Postcolonial Cultural History.

 The seminars offered for the module "Using English in the Professional World (UEP) are compulsory; upon request to the examination board, previously completed or comparable seminars can be accredited according to § 22 AT MPO if there are no substantial differences with regards to the acquired skills and competences to those in UEP 1 and 2.

 For the module "Supplementary Studies Module (SuStMo)", students can pick seminars, lectures etc. worth up to 9 CP from a wide range of neighbouring subject across two semesters.